Amend the Laws relating to Fishing Rights on Lough Neagh and other Inland Fisheries in Ireland. A.D. 1911.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5     1. It is hereby declared that Lough Neagh is a public and common navigable inland sea, and that there is and shall be a general public right of fishing therein, and every subject of His Majesty may exercise such right, subject to any enactment regulating the fishing in the said lough. Establishment of general public right of fishing in Lough Neagh.
- 10    2. It shall be lawful for the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, from time to time, to make byelaws, rules, orders, and regulations in respect of the fisheries of Lough Neagh by virtue of and for the purposes set out in section ninety-one of the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1842. Power to make regulations.
- 15    3. It shall and may be lawful for all fishermen and persons employed by them to enter upon all such beaches, strands, and wastes on or adjoining Lough Neagh or any of its bays, as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying on any fishing, and also to draw up and spread their nets and land their fish upon 20 any such beach, strand, or waste: Provided nevertheless that they shall not erect any fixtures or fixed nets thereon. Provision of facilities for fishlug.
- 4. This Act may be cited as the Fisheries (Ireland) Act, 1911, and may be cited with the Fisheries (Ireland) Acts, 1842 to 1901. Short title.
